

Administrative Regulation 5134 Social Events

Responsible Office: Office of Accountability & School Performance

REGULATION

1. Elementary

- a. In the elementary schools, class or room parties are permissible during the last hour of the school day on occasions approved by the principal in advance.

2. Secondary

- a. School parties at the secondary school level may be held after school hours or during lunch periods. All such parties should normally be held on the school premises under the supervision of school personnel. In very special cases, the school may hold a social event away from school premises, provided previous approval of plans has been given by the principal and that there are in attendance several faculty members appointed by the principal.
- b. Dances and parties shall be held only at such times and places wherein there is no conflict with regular curricular programs or other previously scheduled extracurricular activities.
- c. Dances sponsored by school organizations shall be under the direction of the sponsors of the organizations at all times. The sponsors and principal shall be responsible for adequate chaperonage to include adequate school police. Dances shall generally close at or before 11:30 p.m.; however, special functions such as the Junior Prom or Senior Ball may run longer. It is expected that at least one member of the school's administrative staff shall be in attendance at all school dances.
- d. Dances and parties must be scheduled with and approved by the principal of the school. Provision must be made as to responsibility for preparations, operation and cleanup details.
